In this view of the obligation of every man to "put away lying and speak truth with his neighbour," the paramount importance of the law of truth stands forth conspicuous. Equivocation is seen to be nothing but a lie complicated with the meanness of evasion.

The Law of Truth - Bible Hub
Also, there's something called 'individual truth' which loosely speaking can be described as a set of facts within the knowledge of respective individual in a given circumstance which stands as truth to the respective persons but is actually not the truth. However, the law is static. Its regulation to circumstance is not varied. 239 views
