Short Exhortation About Tithes And

Good morning everyone and welcome to Our Church. In a moment we are going to take up this morning's tithes and offerings, but first let's open up our Bible to Luke's gospel, and we will head over to chapter 6, verse 38. We can see here that Jesus says, "Give, and it will be given to you: good measure, pressed down, shaken together, and running over will be put into your bosom.

Tithing is an act of worship. It is an expression of the heart, that we trust God with our finances even if the numbers don't make sense. We give God the first fruits, the best off the top, that we have set aside to give. It doesn't matter the ebbs and flows of our financial stance. I know God provides for my needs, as He has proven faithful time and time again, and I will trust Him.

To make a long story short, they eventually turned away from the Lord, but in turning away, they had more than when they turned to Him. When they withheld tithes from us, the Lord withheld business and income from them; the moment they gave (and at times it was almost literally the moment), the Lord would provide for them.
